Q: What drives you to be so enthusiastic about ASNA?

A: I have always wished to get really involved in an actuarial students' organization, to have a more personalized souvenir of my undergraduate studies.

Q: What do you do in your leisure time?

A: I read a lot of books, so that I can enrich my knowledge of philosophy, history and science. I adore listening to classical music, I have learned to play the guitar and the piano, and I am the VP finance of a youth association that promotes African art and culture.

Q: What are the duties of your position?

A: Oh my God! A lot. I am the main link between the 13 universities that form ASNA. I ensure that every single committee gets its job done. I nourish our relationship with actuarial societies like SOA, CAS, and CIA. I personally take care of any single problem that could alter ASNA's reputation or performance while organizing events.

Q: What are your visions about your position?

A: This position really helps me develop my sense of responsibility. I have more rigor in everything I do now, and I have higher expectations when organizing events or monitoring things.

Q: What contributions have you made to ASNA?

A: I believe I brought some dynamism (I can be very hyperactive sometimes!), youth (Being 18 years old, I think I am the youngest president ever!), and some color (I ate so much chocolate in my childhood that I became brownish !!!)

Q: What positions are you interested in for next year's election?

A: None, I've already got the best one! No, seriously I'll be graduating.

Q: Anything else that you want to share?

A: I love more than anything being part of ASNA. Big kiss to everyone!
