

Name	: John Lee
Position @ ASNA	: Secretary
University	: University Of Waterloo
Major	: Actuarial Science
Current academic year	: 4th Year
Horoscope	: The Mighty Leo

Q: What drives you to be so enthusiastic about ASNA?

A: My enthusiasm for ASNA stems from my interest in the actuarial science field and the in opportunity to meet fellow students across our great country. The convention is the golden jewel of ASNA. It brings students, employers and key speakers within the industry together to build connections, to promote awareness within the profession, and to have a great time. Whether it's to land an internship or entry job, be enlightened on current events, or to share experiences with other students, ASNA is here to make it all possible. I see a strong purpose and place for ASNA within the actuarial community, and that is what drove me to become a delegate and executive for this year.

Q: What do you do in your leisure time?

A: Swimming and running are two activities that I keep consistent. There are many sports I enjoy, in fact there are very few that I do not. Currently, I play on the campus basketball and soccer teams. When I do find myself with free time from academics, I catch up with friends and family.

Q: What are the duties of your position?

A: Duties for the secretary has many freedoms. The secretary is responsible for overseeing the general happenings of the organization, and to assist the President. However, many of the duties depend on the person. ASNA is fairly flexible in this department, in that if one seeks work, it will be easily found.

Q: What are your visions about your position?

A: I see my position building connections with the various committees of ASNA. This is an incentive for me, since I enjoy meeting colleagues who share my interests, but with a different perspective. The position is dynamic, and so I see it tailoring to each person year to year. However, there will surely be some aspects that will remain constant.

Q: What contributions have you made to ASNA?

A: This year, I am a delegate for Waterloo and the Secretary of ASNA. As a delegate I promote awareness within my school with my fellow UW delegates. We are currently working on the Employer Bank for Eastern Canada – building connections to various employers for university students across the country. We are also devising new ways to equip students with relevant information to land a job, through inquiring these firms. As a Secretary, I am compiling the minutes for meetings and ensuring that they are properly followed through and understood. I am also verifying that each committee is in sync with their objective proposals. Lastly, I am administrating the discussion forum as a medium for ASNA delegates to communicate.

Q: What positions are you interested in for next year's election?

A: 2006 will be my last year in university. As such, my opportunities will lie outside of ASNA.

Q: Anything else that you want to share?

A: I am looking forward to the upcoming 2006 ASNA convention. Since working with ASNA executives and committees planning the upcoming convention, I can foresee another successful year for ASNA!
