Q: What drives you to be so enthusiastic about ASNA?

A: There a lot of excellent people in the actuarial field who participate in the activities held by ASNA, which is a successful student organization that has existed for more than 15 years. Working with such a great team will be a memorable experience in my university life.

Q: What do you do in your leisure time?

A: I enjoy reading novels, learning French, swimming, playing tennis, photography, and travelling.

Q: What are the duties of your position?

A: Cooperate with our president to arrange activities with Ontario universities and work with other delegates in my team as ASNA's Finance Committee.

Q: What are your visions about your position?

A: This year we will hold some information sessions in Ontario universities to introduce ASNA and we will call up more students to join our annual convention. As a part of the Finance Committee, I will make a great effort to find new sponsors to raise funds for ASNA.

Q: What contributions have you made to ASNA?

A: Discussed and solved some problems met in our work with other delegates in our executive meetings and found sponsors for 2006 ASNA Convention.

Q: Anything else that you want to share?

A: I'd like to meet more friends who are studying actuarial science or who are working in the industry. I believe through joining ASNA, there are a lot of opportunities to learn about my work. I wish we would have more friends
